

P.O.K. Protecting Our Kids

For Kids Only: Pledge to Be a Safe Web Surfer

You can take steps to protect yourself online. Take the Safe Web Surfer pledge by promising to obey the following rules:

- n I will talk to my parents about what I'm doing online and discuss the Web sites I'm visiting.
- n I promise not to talk to people whom I do not know, and I promise I will never give any stranger my telephone number or address.
- n I promise not to add anyone to my IM buddy list that I met in a chat room because I do not know if they are who they claim to be.
- n I promise to immediately let my parents or guardian know if a stranger tries to contact me while online, whether by e-mail or an Instant Message.
- n For my own safety, I will give my parents my online passwords if asked for them.
- n I will never agree to meet with anyone whom I become acquainted with online.
- n I promise not to surf sites that are bad for me – including sex sites, hate sites, or sites that talk about violence or drugs.
- n I agree to follow these rules because I care about what may happen to me, to my parents, and to others.
